Solomon Sessions to Jazz Up Lowertown
Coming Soon - A Trumpeter's Sensational Improv Performance

St. Paul, MN: Bedlam Theatre warmly invites the public to horn in on what promises to be a fun-filled evening as Solomon Sessions performs improv jazz on Thursday, February 23rd, 2017 at 7:00 p.m.

Everywhere, talented and improvisational musicians continue to deliver captivating boogie-woogie performances, keeping audiences coming back for more – and Solomon Sessions is no exception.

While on stage, Solomon performs with fun, rhythmic urgency and inventive expressions as only jazz musicians can. While witnessing the magic of his musicianship, Solomon's audiences accrue memorable experiences they'll remember for years to come.

So, come to the theatre for a thrilling musical event with Solomon Sessions! It will fuel your sensations with exciting and exhilarating enjoyment that you don't want to miss!

Solomon's list of talents includes:

- trumpet playing
- trumpet instructing
- jazz band ensemble directing
- music educating and producing in digital music

As a music educator, Solomon aims to continue to uplift the community via his musical endeavors. "Music is more than a series of notes – music is a pathway to a stronger, more vital community," says Mayor Chris Coleman outside of the theatre.

While not performing, Solomon teaches individual lessons and directs jazz ensembles at Walker West Music Academy and Minneapolis Community and Technical College.

About Bedlam Theatre: As a nonprofit organization located in Lowertown of St. Paul, Bedlam Theatre aims to unite the community with music, dance, the spoken word, and visual arts.
